

IBM PAPER ON 23rd MARCH AT MAHARASHTRA

Hello Friends !!

I'm Miss Apeksha Dengre, 3rd year B.E. computers student from SSPM'S College, Amravati, Maharashtra. On 23rd March '07 I got 1st chance to appear for campus interview. Being 1st chance I was quite nervous but managed somehow, and now finally I GOT PLACED IN IBM Global Services. It was really a dream come true.

Dear friends I'm here providing you with pattern paper we had at IBM. plz do go through it once.....it will surely help you out.

ROUND 1 :

This was an aptitude test. It was simple and easy but needs your concentration. Aptitude Test had 55 questions divided in 4 sections.

1) English Section :

In this section there were in all 10 ques. of which 5 were based on a given paragraph. Rest 5 were too easy, they included filling up articles and prepositions, also synonyms. you can easily get through this section.

2) Logical Aptitude :

This section had some logical ques. easy can be solved using venn diagrams. Also had some ques on blood relation ship. It was somewhat this way (unknown values) A company manufactures juices of different flavours like orange, mango, pineapple, strawberry etc etc. and some conditions are given as it manufactures 4 packs of pure orange juice, 7 packs of banana juice, 3 packs of mixed orange and mango and so on. and u r told to find the other quantity such as ...How many pure mango packs are manufactured?

try solving it with help of venn diag.

3) Attention to Detail

This was very easy n interesting section. here some options are given and u need to identify which of them are alike and then mark your final answer.

for eg. a) XXGFXGGY b) XXGGFXGY c) XXGFXGGY d) XXFFGXXGY.

you are given answer options as 1) a & b are alike.
